

FIELD OFFICER

(SOCIAL WORK, PSYCHOLOGY OR RELATED FIELD)
South Hedland, Western Australia

IBN is a Trustee for the Yinhawangka, Banyjima and Nyiyaparli people. This position plays an integral role in supporting the IBN community through case management, linking with other services providers and advocacy. We are looking for a committed, flexible and critical thinker with a demonstrated understanding of Aboriginal people, cultures and society.

To be successful you will have a background in Human/Social Services with proven knowledge of social welfare programs and resources. You will hold a tertiary level qualification in either social work, mental health nursing, psychology or related fields. Experience in assessing, counselling and offering advice to clients is essential as is a class C drivers licence.

- Salary from $80,342 p.a. plus superannuation
- Housing allowance may be provided
- Attractive employee benefits

For more information please email hr@ibngroup.com.au or call Ian Williamson on (08) 9140 0927 or Jessie Hudson on (08) 9140 0909. Applications close Wednesday 18 September 2013